The Jacob Burns Center for Ethics in the Practice of Law presents Ethics and Government Lawyering in the Age of Trump, a speaker series that probes the ethical challenges confronting government lawyers in the Trump era. It features prominent members of former Presidential Administrations and leading scholars of legal ethics. Future speakers include Bradley Wendel (Nov. 13, 2017), Richard Painter (Feb. 19, 2018) and Walter Shaub (March 13, 2018).

Michael Bosworth served as Deputy Counsel to the President and Deputy Assistant to the President in the Obama White House. He previously served as Special Counsel to FBI Director James Comey and as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Southern District of New York, where he was Deputy Chief of the Public Corruption Unit and Co-Chief of the Complex Frauds Unit. He is currently Senior Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer at MacAndrews & Forbes in New York City.

This program is approved for 1.0 New York State CLE credit in Ethics and Professionalism.
