YESHIVA UNIVERSITY

The Center for Rights and Justice invites you to:

Students for Fair Admissions v. Harvard College and the Future of Affirmative Action

Monday, November 26, 2018
12:00 - 1:15 p.m.

Room 1008
Cardozo School of Law
55 Fifth Avenue
New York, NY

Lunch will be served
No RSVP necessary

Please join the Cardozo community for a panel discussion about the Harvard affirmative action case with lawyers from the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF).

Cara McClellan, current Skadden Public Interest Fellow at the LDF, and Rachel M. Kleinman, Senior Counsel at the LDF, will speak about affirmative action litigation and their involvement in Students for Fair Admissions v. President and Fellows of Harvard College, which recently wrapped up in Boston.

The NAACP LDF filed an amicus brief on behalf of 25 different student organizations at Harvard, arguing that the elimination of the consideration of race in Harvard's college application process will lead to further discrimination against applicants of color.

This event will be moderated by Professor Michelle Adams.
