PROFESSOR MYRIAM GILLES COMMENTS ON FORCED ARBITRATION IN KIPLINGER'S

July 16, 2019

Chase is the latest corporate entity to impose mandatory arbitration policies on its cardholders. Professor Myriam Gilles commented in Kiplinger's that in a settlement several years ago some issuers entered a moratorium on arbitration clauses, but that has since expired, and "attorneys would be hard-pressed to pull together a class action with the consumers who do opt out."
