In conjunction with the Cardozo Intellectual Property & Information Law Program and the Fashion, Arts, Media & Entertainment (FAME) Center, the Cardozo Arts & Entertainment Law Journal presents its 2016 symposium:

New Impressions on Advertising Law

Advertising commands billions of dollars each year across numerous industries in the United States. As advertising methods and technologies evolve in pursuit of the coveted consumer dollar, advertising law faces increasingly complex challenges, which this symposium seeks to explore. Please join us as we gain new perspectives from the nation's foremost legal practitioners and scholars.
