INDIE FILM CLINIC DOCUMENTARY WINS EMMY

September 27, 2019

On Tuesday, one of the Indie Film Clinic's films, Kai Shappley: A Trans Little Girl Growing Up in Texas (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=culkLNsRtas&t=30s>), won the Emmy for Best Documentary Short. This film was produced in collaboration with ACLU and is another great example of visual advocacy.

The students who worked on that case include Adam Rubin, Ting Ting Lu, Alejandro Palma and Erica Ruff.

Professor Michelle Greenberg-Kobrin is the Director of Cardozo's Indie Film Clinic (<https://cardozo.yu.edu/clinics-professional-skills/clinics/indie-film-clinic>). The Indie Film Clinic is supported by the Laurie M. Tisch Illumination Fund.
