Suspension Representation Project

New Advocate Training

Wednesday, 10/3 | 5:30 PM | 3rd fl lounge

THERE WILL BE PIZZA!

Do you want to develop your oral advocacy skills as a 1L? Are you interested in criminal or juvenile justice, access to education, or civil rights? Join us!

Suspension Representation Project (SRP) is an advocacy group that trains law students to represent NYC public school students in suspension hearings. You and a co-advocate will interview clients, conduct cross-examinations, and provide children and their families valuable assistance and support.

All new advocates must attend a training to become eligible to take a case
